

Harrison Prep's Learner Profile Trait for October:

Communicator

We express ourselves confidently and creatively in more than one language and in many ways. We collaborate effectively, listening carefully to the perspectives of other individuals and groups.

@HOME connection	@Home student connection
How can adults help develop students to be COMMUNICATORS at home? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Encourage your child to stay in touch with relatives and friends who live in other countries by writing letters, using the phone or sending an email.• When working on homework, encourage your child to explain his/her answer to you orally or by drawing a picture.• Work with your child to improve his/her listening skills. Being a good listener is an important part of communicating with others.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Brainstorm ways you communicate.• Think about - How do you communicate through various forms of art? How do you communicate with words? In what ways do you communicate without words? How do you communicate what you want to communicate?• This month we invite you to practice be a clear and confident communicator with peers, family members, and community members.