

Harrison Prep's Learner Profile Trait for December:

Knowledgeable

We develop and use conceptual understanding, exploring knowledge across a range of disciplines. We engage with issues and ideas that have local and global significance.

@HOME connection	@HOME student connection
How can adults help to develop students who are well KNOWLEDGEABLE at home? <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ask your student what they are learning in school and engage them in conversations about it:<ul style="list-style-type: none">• “Why do you think that concept is important?”• “What is happening in the world today that may be similar to what you are learning?”• Encourage your student to read books at home that correspond with the topics being covered in school.• Encourage your student to become familiar with current events and to read the newspaper and watch the news when appropriate.• Foster any area that your student expresses an interest in with books and activities, but also be sure to encourage them to explore other areas.	Reflect on the questions below and share responses with a friend or adult. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Do you use resources that you have been exposed to in answering questions?• Do you read for both enjoyment and information?• Do you explore topics of interest to you and share your knowledge with others?• Do you find that you can answer questions to a lot of different topics and areas of interest (ex: sports, history, current events, the arts, science, etc.)?